

SUMMER SEMESTER PROGRAM 2021

Tuesday, April 13, 2021 | 2:00 to 3:30 p.m.

Prof. em. Dr. h.c. Dr. h.c. Tom A. B. Snijders, PhD, University of Oxford (UK) and University of Groningen (NL)

“Longitudinal Network Methods for Studying Social Influences: Possibilities and Challenges”

Tuesday, May 11, 2021 | 2:00 to 3:30 p.m.

Prof. Dr. Katharina Scheiter, Leibniz-Institut für Wissensmedien (IWM)

“Boundary conditions for effective learning and teaching with technology”

Tuesday, June 8, 2021 | 2:00 to 3:30 p.m.

Prof. Dr. Matthias von Davier, Boston College (USA)

“Longitudinal Modeling with Discrete and Continuous Latent Variables”

Tuesday, June 22, 2021 | 2:00 to 3:30 p.m.

Prof. Dr. York Sure-Vetter, Nationale Forschungsinfrastruktur (NFDI)

“National Research Data Infrastructure”

All lectures in the summer term are currently planned as online meetings. If possible, the lectures will take place on site in room 01.04 at LifBi, Wilhelmsplatz 3, Bamberg.

For up-to-date information please visit:
www.lifbi.de/lifbilectures

